Dear Parents and Carers,

CALD program at Carers Qld are wanting to spread the word that they are taking new referrals for the CALD (Culturally and Linguistically Diverse) program at Carers Queensland. If you know of someone who is:

- A younger person with a disability, chronic medical problem or mental illness, frail-aged or a family member providing care and,
- Requires basic support services to remain in their home and,
- Are from a CALD background.

We will be able to meet with them, provide a care plan (including an ONI - Ongoing Needs Assessment) and link them into appropriate support. If you have any questions or would like further information about the CALD program or any other support that is offered at Carers QLD, please do not hesitate to contact Corinna Myers, Cultural and Linguistic Diversity Program, Family Carer Support Officer.

Some behavioural issues at school lately have been causing some concern as students have been having bus injury:

- Tackling at any time while at school is prohibited. In the past certain sports have been banned for a week due to students’ rough behaviour.
- The rubber bands and jewellery made from them that is currently popular is not to be used in school as it is potentially for serious injury:

TALKING TUCKSHOP

Billabongs & Minis are back! Also icy Poles are in stock for those students who are unable to eat milk based products and cost $1-00 each.

Many thanks to Mrs Rotondo for the beautiful fruit muffins she supplies us with every Monday morning throughout the year. Your efforts are very much appreciated.

Don't forget—2 bags are required when ordering Big Lunch and Afternoon Tea.

If your student(s) goes home from school sick and they have a tuckshop order in, please call into the tuckshop and let us know. This will save lunch being wasted or one of the tuckshop volunteers trying to find them to collect their lunch.

Tuckshop volunteers, please check your roster for this term and ensure your rostered days are suitable. If not, please call in and we will change the dates that are not suitable.
