Chappy’s Word
Hello fantastic Ingham SS community. Last week the Federal Government announced the continuation of the Chaplaincy program in 2015 funding the program as State grants to be administered by the States and Territories as suggested by the High court making the program completely compliant with federal laws. Now chaplains can continue their service to their schools and communities.

Tree Of Kindness
These 3 Leaves were randomly selected from last week: Mrs De Lai - For being the awesomest teacher and being really nice. Joe in 3DL - For helping me and lending me some of her rubbers and pencils. Congratulations guys. This is just a small sample of many great things people are doing for one another. If you get a chance stop and have a look at some of these leaves... you will most certainly be encouraged and inspired.

Chappy’s Riddle
(Answer to last weeks riddles- Easy: Paint- Hard: A Fan)
Easy: Riddle me this, What is it you sit on, sleep in, and brush your teeth with?
Hard: Riddle me this, What is it that you cannot hold even ten minute, even though it is lighter than a feather?
Chappy Josh

Dear Parents and Carers,
Thank you so much for all the parents who supported Seacapers on Saturday night. I can’t remember a time where there were quite so many children who performed as part of their class group. The children who performed the dancing, lip-sync, songs, and synchronised swimming had so much fun and were great entertainment!!! How talented are our students! I know that I am over the top proud of our students but they were all so beautifully behaved and really looked after each other. I know that the P&C have thanked all the people who put such a huge effort in on the night in a different section of the Newsletter. We had so many wonderful workers who every year always put in such a big effort. I would however like to put in some personal thanks. Thanks Megan Carbone for putting in such a huge amount of energy over such a long time. I would particularly like to thank Tarad Venables who no longer has students at our school but who continued as P&C president this year. He inspires us with his belief that we can do anything we put our minds to. We will miss hugely his generosity of spirit and his determination. I would also like to thank Pauline De Luca who has helped out for months behind the scenes with a huge range of jobs. Thanks also to the teachers who helped also by working with our students and working on stalls and Chappy Josh did a magic job with his audio team. Thanks Josh for donating your time and the use of your very expensive equipment. We really appreciate it.
The students are loving our mural that Donna Macarone has been working on. The mural is to reinforce for our youngest students what being safe, being respectful, being responsible looks like. Unfortunately at Seacapers we had to cover it with our Seacapers banner but feel free to come and have a look at it in the Multipurpose Hall. Student behaviour at school has been pretty awesome lately but I would like to remind parents whose children take the bus to have a chat with their children and ensure that they are not being influenced by older students from high schools to be silly. Reinforce our message that on the way home and any time they are in Ingham State School uniform the expectation is that they will be following our 3 rules and if they are not they will be facing consequences.

TALKING TUCKSHOP

Seacapers: I am not sure where to start. Four or five weeks back I put a Roster and Notice in the Newsletter asking for volunteers, donations and help for various areas in the Food, Tea Coffee and Sweets Stalls. There was equipment to be repaired, cleaned, onions donated and cut, sweets to be made, various items to be borrowed etc. I was not prepared for the overwhelming response I received.

My heartfelt thanks to everyone who contributed in any way to the Food, Tea Coffee and Sweets Stalls. Volunteers were grandparents, parents and school staff. No matter what part you played in all of this I am most grateful for your help. To the volunteers who manned and cleaned up the stalls on Saturday night you did an outstanding job. Thank you to JK’s for their sponsorship by providing us with their Coffee machine and staff. The Tuckshop Team did an enormous amount of work in the week leading up to Seacapers.

Thank you to everyone for helping make Seacapers 2014 such a success.

Tuckshop Rosters: Could all tuckshop volunteers please check their rostered dates for next term and if you find you are not available on your rostered day, please change days with another volunteer.

Happy Teacher Aide Day for last Friday.

A lovely green and black beach towel was left behind from Seacapers—please pick up from Tuckshop.

Thank you everyone! Mrs Byers Tuckshop Convenor
